

Co-Sponsored by The Chancellor's Distinguished Visitor Program

Unfettered Access to Plan B:
The 13-Year Epic Battle over Emergency Contraception

Eli Y. Adashi, MD, MS, CPE, FACOG

Professor of Medical Science
Former Dean of Medicine and Biological Sciences
Faculty, Center for Prisoner Health and Human Rights
The Warren Alpert School of Medicine
Division of Biology and Medicine
Brown University

March 11, 2016; 1:00 – 2:00 PM
Women's and Children's Hospital
Conference Center

Dr. Adashi has a laudable history in medicine, reproductive science and health policy. Among his enumerable honors and awards, membership in the National Academy of Medicine (formerly the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences) is paramount. His presentation will collectively address medicine, science and health policy, in line with MU's One Health, One Medicine area of Mizzou Advantage.

Speaker Disclosure: Dr. Adashi has the following COI disclosure: none. Actual disclosure available upon request.

Target audience: Medical staff who treat and care for the female patient population, reproductive scientists, health policy advocates.

Objectives: At the conclusion of this presentation, participants should be able to:

1. appreciate the power of legal advocacy and of an independent judiciary
2. recognize the impact of ideas and ideology on the Federal Drug Administration

The Office of Continuing Education in the School of Medicine at The University of Missouri is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Office of Continuing Education, School of Medicine, University of Missouri designates this live educational activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s).™ Physicians should only claim the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Equal opportunity is and shall be provided to all participants in Extension programs and activities and for all employees and applicants for employment on the basis of their demonstrated ability and competence without discrimination on the basis of their race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age disability or status as a Vietnam-era veteran. This policy shall not be interpreted in such a manner as to violate the legal rights of religious organizations or military organizations associated with the armed forces of the United States of America."